However, we only transfer your personal data to countries for which the EU Commission has decided that they have an adequate level of data protection. Please note that we therefore accept no liability for the disclosure of information due to errors in data transmission not caused by us or unauthorized access by third parties.

We make every effort to ensure that any data breaches are reported immediately to you or the relevant supervisory authority.

3. Storage of data

If no explicit storage period is specified when collecting personal data, your data will be deleted as soon as it is no longer required to fulfill the purpose for which it was stored, unless legal storage obligations (commercial, tax or civil law storage periods) prevent deletion.

4. Revocability of given consents

You have the right to revoke the consent given to us for the use/processing of your personal data at any time with effect for the future. The revocation does not affect the legality of the collection and processing carried out on the basis of the consent before the revocation. After such revocation, Agro Grün GmbH may only continue to process the personal data to the extent that the processing is linked to another legal basis in accordance with the DS-GVO.

5. Your rights as a data subject
